Campany & Thornton Fine Jewelry and The Groden Network
“Your Autism Experts” Host Art Show to Benefit Persons with Autism

Special Wine Tasting Opening on Thursday, June 18th

SOUTH KINGSTOWN, R.I. -- The Groden Network, “Your Autism Experts,” a leader in providing services to children and adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder and related developmental disabilities, and fine jeweler Campany & Thornton, are pleased to host “Artists with Autism,” an event to benefit the art programs for Persons with Autism and related developmental disabilities at the Groden Network.

The event will be held from June 16, 2009 through Sunday, June 21, 2009 at Campany & Thornton Fine Jewelry, 36 South County Commons Way C1, South Kingstown, R.I. The exhibit will reveal a unique glimpse of the world through the eyes of artists with Autism. Works in photography, water colors, oils woodworking, and jewelry will be for sale to the public.

The Groden Network is the leading non-profit organization in Rhode Island providing services, treatment, and educational programs for children and adults with autism and related developmental disabilities. The Groden Network of programs provides quality service to over 800 clients. The Groden Family of programs includes: The Groden Center – day and residential programs for children and adolescents; The Cove Center – vocational and residential programs for adults; The Halcyon Center – day and residential support programs for adults in Southern Massachusetts; and Kingston Hill Academy – a public charter school dedicated to the Groden Network mission of individualized learning.
